

PDOT London Hosts #PhilippinesFoodTripping Event in Milan

Consul General Bernadette Therese Fernandez with Chef Marvin Braceros of Yum Taste of the Philippines Filipino Restaurant and Attilia Bossi and Elisa Eterno of Interface at La Scuola de La Cucina Italiana, Milan.

09 December 2021- The Philippine Consulate General in Milan attended the food tripping event hosted by the Philippine Department of Tourism- London at the upscale La Scuola de La Cucina Italiana at Via San Nicolao in Central Milan. La Scuola is run by Edizioni Conde Nast, S.P.A. and chooses a country to feature in a cooking show once a month.

Filipino chef Marvin Braceros of the Yum- Taste of the Philippines Filipino restaurant in Milan was invited, along with fourteen (14) journalists and travel writers to prepare pancit and bibingka, dishes that were described by Interface (PDOT's marketing office in Milan) as traditional food that are served during Christmas in the Philippines.

Promoting Philippine cuisine and gastronomy are essential components of the Philippine tourism campaign in Italy and Europe.

Cooking demonstration with Italian travel and lifestyle writers and influencers as participants

With siblings Marvin and Marivel Braceros of Ristorante Yum

Travel influencer Federica di Nardo preparing bibingka